GUEST SPEAKERS

The following speakers are sure to inform and inspire.

Judge Jane McMeeken presides over the only Youth Drug Court in New Zealand. Her appointment as a District Court Judge was made in 1999 and she has General, Family and Youth Court warrants. She is the mother of three children, has captained New Zealand at basketball and is on the boards of College House, Royal Humane Society of New Zealand, Canterbury Basketball Association and Odyssey House.

Mary McIntyre is a Past District Chairman of NZ 298 and will speak on her experience as the Association of Presbyterian Women's NGO delegate to the United Nations Committee on Women and Children. Her talk will explain the importance of IIW being represented as a Non Governmental Organisation (NGO) at the United Nations.

Mary-Jane Thomas is a partner in a local law practice and the Crown Solicitor for Southland. She is also the mother of young children and has represented Southland in several sports including women's rugby and touch rugby. As well she has an enthusiasm for harness racing and a delightful sense of humour.

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Choose two out of the three sessions to attend on Saturday afternoon

Session 1: "Inner Wheel and the F Words – Finding Focus, Fun, Fulfilment and Friendships." Led by Members of National Council. Practical and Interactive - thinking outside the square.

Session 2: "Which Hat Are You Wearing?" Led by Glen Caves.
Asking the questions – when, where, why, who, and what if.

Session 3: "Changing The Tyre" Led by Carole Young.
Where is our journey going? What will we see along the way? What do we need to pack?

ACCOMMODATION

The Conference is to be held at Ascot Park Hotel, Tay Street, Invercargill.

The Conference Committee will handle bookings for accommodation at this hotel only.
