

Shirley Crowley

IWNZ President 1991 – 1992

International Board Member 1990 – 1992

International Board Director 1995 - 1996

Goals :

- To lay the foundation for a fledgling National Council and the formation of a Constitution to meet the changes of a National Council.
- To emphasise the meaning of IIW, the focus at the United Nations and Illustrate what a group of totally committed women could do to make a difference in the world.
- To enhance communication (with the conception of "Inner Link" - a newsletter to keep members informed), cooperation and team work.

Themes

1990/91 – Protect Our World

1991/92 – Take Time

Inner Wheel New Zealand Conferences

Invercargill October 1990

International Inner Wheel President attending – Margaret Spenning (Norway)

Palmerston North – May 1992

International Inner Wheel Vice President attending – Gwen Bowman (Australia)

"I joined Inner Wheel because the aims and objects were exactly right for me. I believed in them then and I still do"
Shirley Crowley (Barr Smith)

Members attending the first National Council Meeting held in Shirley Crowley's home

Back Row L to R: Evelyn Cowie NZ294, Maureen Taylor NZ293, Suzanne Whitty NZ297, Heather Young NZ298, Bernadette Rolston IWNZ Secretary, Jean Currie NZ291.

Seated L to R: Beth McNeill IWNZ Vice President and Treasurer, Shirley Crowley IWNZ President